To whom it may concern

Mr. Choudhury Mueen Uddin, General Secretary of the Council of Mosques: U.K & Eire is traveling to South Africa on invitation from the Muslim Judicial Council of South Africa, Cape Town, on 13th February '88.

Apart from the scheduled programmes with the Muslim Community, Mr. Chowdhury Mueen Uddin would also be interested in gathering information about the present state of affairs of the country, specially in relation to the anti-apartheid movement and its progress.

The Council of Mosques will gratefully acknowledge and indeed remain obliged for any help and co-operation that may be offered to him in this regard.
